2017 Vocations Essay Contest
Sponsored by the Serra Club of Indianapolis

Theme:

The theme for the upcoming Essay Contest is “Disciple”

Essay Question:

“How have you learned what it means to be a disciple through the ministry or witness of a man or woman in consecrated life, a priest, or a deacon?”

Procedures:

Eligibility and Sponsors	The contest is open to all Catholic students in Grades 7 through 12 who live in or attend school within the Archdiocese of Indianapolis. Catechists and religion teachers at each parish or school may sponsor the two (2) essays they consider best for each class within grades 7 – 8. For grades 9 -12, two (2) essays per grade level may be sponsored. Home school students may submit essays in conjunction with their parish.
Contest Time Period	The Essay Contest begins with the distribution of these materials. All essays are to be submitted (postmarked) by Friday, 3/10/2017.
Length and Appearance	Essays should be between 300 and 500 words in length and may be typed or hand-written. Hand written essays should use black ink (not pencil) and be single-spaced on lined paper.
Prizes &amp; Recognition	All submitted essays will be anonymously read and judged by a Serra committee. A winning essay will be selected for each grade level based upon: 1) How well it answers the question; 2) Originality and content; 3) Grammar and readability. A certificate and cash prize will be awarded to one student at each grade level for the essay judged to be the best as determined by the judges. Winning essayists will be invited to read their essays at a special Serra recognition luncheon on Tuesday, April 18, 2017 to be held at Fatima Retreat House in Indianapolis. Winning essays will also be published in The Criterion.
Submission	Essays must be submitted (postmarked) no later than Friday, March 10, 2017. Send essays to: Serra Vocations Essay Contest Attn: Andy Miller Office of Vocations 1400 N. Meridian Indianapolis, IN 46202

Serra is an international organization of lay persons whose mission is to help foster and promote vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Serra's patron is Saint Junipero Serra, the missionary priest who, along with fellow Franciscans established 21 missions in California in the late 1700s. The Serra Club of Indianapolis has supported vocations in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis for sixty-six years.
